2021 TIERRA ALTA VINEYARD VIOGNIER: New Release

This vineyard is located just up the road in the cool Ballard Canyon A.V.A. of Santa Barbara County. These grapes were hand harvested early in the morning, hand sorted and whole-cluster pressed to preserve the fresh, floral and fruity quality of this amazing varietal. The juice was fermented in three year old French oak 500L puncheons while preventing malo-lactic fermentation to retain its bright acidity. It was aged for five months sur lie and stirred monthly before being transferred to a 700L concrete egg for five months prior to bottling in July of 2022.

2021 HAYLEE'S ROSE: New Release

This wine is a refreshing rosé blend of 90% Grenache, 7% Syrah and 3% Zinfandel named after my daughter Haylee Rose. Her favorite color is pink and this wine is as bright and vivacious as she! The grapes were harvested early in the morning while still cold and whole-cluster pressed to create a beautiful, light-pink hue. I prevented malo-lactic fermentation to preserve the fresh, bright acidity and aged in barrel for five months prior to bottling in late February. Beautiful aromas of freshly crushed strawberries, raspberries and framboise jump from the glass while mouthwatering flavors of watermelon, strawberry, cranberry and crisp acidity refresh your palate.

2018 THOMPSON VINEYARD SYRAH: New Release

The Syrah grapes came from the "old" block of Estrella River Clone that was planted over thirty years ago and produced just over two tons per acre in 2018 due to the extremely sandy soils and cool nature of the site. The grapes were 75% destemmed without being crushed, leaving 95% whole berries and 25% whole clusters, into a 1.5 ton open top fermentor and cold-soaked for five days. The grapes were punched down by hand, for 14 days, until fermentation was complete. The free run juice was drained off, the must was basket pressed and aged in barrel for twenty-two months prior to being racked from barrel and bottled in late August of 2020. 94pts~Jeb Dunnuck

2018 FOX FAMILY VINEYARD SYRAH: 100% Organic, Estate Grown Grapes

The Syrah grapes for this wine are grown on a steep, high-density planting on a rocky hillside of the Fox Family Vineyard in the hills of Los Olivos and farmed entirely by hand. These grapes are hand harvested, hand sorted, partially destemmed without being crushed, leaving 95% whole berries, and 20% whole-cluster. The must was cold-soaked for five days, with the addition of dry-ice, prior to inoculation and punched down by hand one to three times per day until fermentation was complete. The free run juice was drained off and the remaining must was basket pressed and settled before being racked to French oak barrels for 22 months of barrel aging. 94 pts ~*Vinous

2018 TIERRA ALTA VINEYARD SYRAH: New Release

The Syrah grapes came from a very steep hillside block of Clone 1 planted in shallow calcareous soils. Located in the Ballard Canyon of Santa Barbara County with a cool marine influence and long, cool growing season these grapes possessed excellent purity and depth while the vineyard produced a meager 1.4 tons per acre crop with excellent concentration. Jeb Dunnuck praised this wine saying it possesses, "lots of ripe black fruits, ground pepper, and assorted gamey, meaty nuances...a full-bodied, deep, almost brooding Syrah that has some serious character and length on the finish." 93 points
